

Karen K. Corning Vose 1940 - 2014

Karen K. (Corning) Vose was born August 1, 1940, in Fergus Falls, Minnesota and passed away January 9, 2014, in Spokane, Washington.

Karen grew up in the Seattle area, and married the love of her life, Robert E. Vose, on March 24, 1962 in Edmonds. They were happily married for more than 51 years. In 1968, they moved to Cle Elum, WA, where the family was very active in many community organizations. Karen and Robert were instrumental in founding the local community theater group known as The Ember Players. In 2003, Karen and Robert moved to Spokane, WA to be closer to family.

Karen was a professional ballet dancer in Seattle, WA, and operated her own dance studio for over 25 years in Cle Elum, WA. Her passion for the performing arts and her love of teaching dance touched many lives. She will be missed by all who knew and loved her.

Karen was preceded in death by her parents, Virgil and Bessie Corning and her brothers, Robert and Don Morehead. She is survived by her son, Paul (Tammy) Vose; her daughter, Lorna (Aron) Jones; and her 7 grandchildren: Brian, Rachel, Taylor, Michael, Kyle, Isaac and Kayden.

Update from Robert in October, 2014:

"I am sorry that I did not get a notice of Karen Corning Vose's passing on the ninth of January to you. She had a series of strokes. She was wheel chair bound for her last two years. Her last 18 months were spent in a nursing care residence. I visited her every evening and she remembered me about half the time."
