

Patricia Ann Gorman King

Thanks to Donna Bailey Zabell, we know that our classmate Pat Gorman died on May 8, 2009, in Bellevue, Washington.

"When her phone was no longer in service, I wrote the manager of her residence." Donna says. "The manager called me this morning [Sept 28, 2009] with the sad news. Patty's health (lungs) had been fragile for many many years. She was incredibly brave."
