

Mark Hammer

Mark Hammer, 68, born April 3, 1940 in Seattle, WA, died February 20, 2009, in La Quinta, CA.

Mark graduated from Edmonds High and received his BA and double Master's degrees at Seattle University. He spent his career in the Aerospace Industry, estimating and negotiating contracts with the Defense Department for Boeing, General Dynamics, Martin Marietta, and later with his own consulting firm in Winter Park, Florida. He lived there for 30+ years, prior to moving to La Quinta to be closer to family.

Mark's passions included following all sports, remaining true to his Seattle teams, and the finer things in life—art, designer clothes, cars and his special Porsches.

He took great pride in his nieces, nephews and great nieces, loved animals, and enjoyed helping others, particularly his elderly neighbors.

He was predeceased by his loving mother, Margaret; and his beloved "Uncle Buddies", Dean and Gene Bunker.

He is survived by his father, Frank; siblings, Laurel, Pastor Dan and Terry, and Frank Jay and Mary.

At his request there will be no services.

Notes may be sent to Laurel Hammer, PO Box 6179, La Quinta, CA 92248.

Published in The Herald (Everett) on Mar. 22, 2009