

Arnold Joseph McKay Jr.

1940 - 2006

Arnold Joseph McKay Jr., age 65, passed away April 17, 2006, in Tulalip, Washington. Arnie was born July 16, 1940, in Tulalip.

Arnie graduated from Marysville High School, and went to college for two years. He worked at Allstate for 27 years as a computer analyst. When it came to sports, there was no lukewarm for Arnie, if he was a fan he was an avid fan; an avid Husky fan, and soccer coach. His passion was golfing, and he shot a hole in one at Walter Hall Golf Course in Everett.

He is survived by sons, Kyle (Morning Star), and Douglas McKay; devoted mate of 13 special years, Marion Profita; sister, Jeannie (John) McCoy; aunts, Bernice Williams and Katie Gates; uncle, Charles "Red" Sheldon; granddaughter, Faith Farmer; newly born grandson, Graham Judson McKay, (whom he met before he lost his battle with cancer); former wife of 27 years, Carol McKay; daughter, Lois; brother-in-law, Clayton McCluskey; and numerous nephews, nieces and cousins.

Arnie was preceded in death by parents, Arnold Sr. and Linnette Sheldon McKay; grandmother, Sarah Sheldon; and sister, Mary Ann McCluskey.

A Rosary Service was held Wednesday, April 19, 2006 at Schaefer-Shipman Funeral Home, 804 State Avenue, Marysville, Washington. Viewing will be held prior to the funeral service from 9 a.m. until service time. Funeral Service will be held at 11 a.m., Thursday, April 20, 2006, also at Schaefer-Shipman Funeral Home. Burial will follow at Mission Beach Cemetery.
