Jack Edward Eschrich passed peacefully in his sleep on Thursday, February 27, 2020 after battling pancreatic cancer. Jack was an incredible husband, loving father, grandfather, and amazing teacher. He will be missed terribly by family, friends and scores of former students. Born in Seattle on June 17, 1940 to Gladys and Edward Eschrich.

Jack is survived by his wife Sue of 58 years; brother Bob Eschrich and sister-in-law Nancy Eschrich of Tuscon, AZ; sons Brent and Jim, daughter Brenda and son-in-law Peter, and daughter's-in-law Teri and Laura. Six grandchildren with two amazing wives, and one new great-granddaughter were the light of his life.

Jimmy, Bre, Joey, Nicholas, Izzy, Elise, Alex and Rylan spent many summers at Patterson Lake fishing, hanging on the porch and helping grandpa grill burgers. Jack was also able to welcome the newest member of the family, Blake Elizabeth on February 16, 2020 born to Jimmy and Bre.

Jack spent almost 80 years on this earth deeply impacting his family and friends. His almost 50 years as an English, photography and journalism teacher in the Edmonds School District influenced the lives of many students. Jack's family has had the privilege of reading many touching and heartfelt testimonials in social media from former students. We thank everyone for their support and kindness during this difficult time.

Services will be scheduled at a later time due to current restrictions on gatherings.
